

GRANITE DATA MINER

#4 - APRIL IS WATER CONSERVATION MONTH

46

percentage of New Hampshire population that gets drinking water from unregulated wells.

Source: NH Department of Environmental Services.

30

% (estimated) of private wells that exceed arsenic levels allowed in public use water systems.

Source: NH Department of Environmental Services.

115

of gallons per use per person per day in NH, above US average of 100 gallons /person/day.

Source: NH Department of Environmental Services.

42

of organizations part of NH large groundwater withdrawal program that use more than 28 million gallons daily.

Source: NH Department of Environmental Services.

935

millions of gallons(MG) of water per day withdrawn for all uses.

Source: USDA - Natural Resources Conservation Service