

GRANITE DATA MINER

#37- STRAIGHT UP THE MOUNTAIN

37.41

% of the steepest grade of the Mount Washington Cog Railway; the average grade is 25% grade.

Source: <https://www.thecog.com/>

139

years (ending in 2008) that the steam locomotive went up mount washington.

Source: <https://www.thecog.com/classic-steam-and-modern-biodiesel-locom>

22

gallons of bio-diesel used in the 7 mile roundtrip trip on the Cog railway.

Source: <https://www.thecog.com/classic-steam-and-modern-biodiesel-locom>

1875

age of the Ammonoosuc, the oldest coal-powered locomotives still used on the cog railway.

Source: <https://www.thecog.com/classic-steam-and-modern-biodiesel-locom>

300

feet long of Jacob's Ladder, the steepest railway trestle in the world; opened in 1869.

Source: <https://www.thecog.com/classic-steam-and-modern-biodiesel-locom>