

GRANITE DATA MINER

#39- OSSIPEE MOUNTAINS CALDERA

10

miles wide of the remains of the Ossiipee Caldera (large depression) that was formed when a volcano collapsed after erupting over 120 Million years ago.

Source: <https://www.plymouth.edu/>

10,000

feet in the height of the original volcano in the Ossipee Mountains.

Source: <https://www.plymouth.edu/>

3200

feet in the height of Shaw Mountain, the highest remaining mountain in the Ossipee Mountains.

Source: <https://www.plymouth.edu/>

2

Number of Volcanos in New Hampshire 120+ Million years ago, one in Ossipee Mountains and the other in Pawtuckaway State Park.

Source: <https://www.plymouth.edu/>

27

of mountains in the lakes regions of the NH.

Source: <https://www.plymouth.edu/>