

GRANITE DATA MINER

#13 - THIS LAND IS OUR LAND

1,850,584

of acres are in public ownership or permanently protected in New Hampshire and available for public use.

Source: NH Forestry Society

>500

of different wildlife species in new hampshire.

Source: <https://www.wildlife.state.nh.us/about/faqs.html>

3.3

of tons of wood harvested from New Hampshire annually. more than 65% of work is used for paper making.

Source: <https://nhtoa.org/general/61-facts-about-new-hampshire-s-forest-and-forest-economy.html> average sugar percentage in sugar maple trees, one of the most popular trees in NH.

2.2

Source: <https://extension.unh.edu/blog/2021/02/magic-sugar-maple><https://extension.unh.edu/blog/2021/02/magic-sugar-maple> of landowners in forested areas in New Hampshire, private owners own almost 70% of all forested lands in NH.

128,000

Source: https://www.nh.gov/nhdfl/documents/nh-stateforestationplan_2020.pdf